

Joe Biden

🕒 This article is more than 10 months old

ICC urged to investigate Biden for 'aiding and abetting' Gaza war crimes

US-based nonprofit Dawn also accuses ex-secretary of state Antony Blinken and ex-Pentagon chief Lloyd Austin

Anna Betts

Mon 24 Feb 2025 21.21 CET

A US-based nonprofit organization has urged the international criminal court to investigate former president Joe Biden and two of his cabinet members for complicity in war crimes and crimes against humanity in Gaza.

The request, submitted by the Democracy for the Arab World Now (Dawn) last month but made public by the group on Monday, urges the ICC to investigate Biden, as well as former secretary of state Antony Blinken and former defense secretary Lloyd Austin, for their “accessorial roles in aiding and abetting, as well as intentionally contributing to, Israeli war crimes and crimes against humanity in Gaza”.

This is not a paywall

Enter your email to keep reading - for free. It takes just 30 seconds

We're committed to keeping our quality reporting open. By registering and providing us with insight into your preferences, you're helping us to engage with you more deeply, and that allows us to keep our journalism free for all.

 Sign in with Google

 Sign in with Apple

or

 Sign in with email

By proceeding, you agree to our terms and conditions. For information about how we use your data, including the generation of random identifiers based on your email address for advertising and marketing, visit our privacy policy.

Not signed in before? Create an account

Most viewed
